Mrs Claus Workshop

The children of Abbotswood Primary School have been busy this week making decorations for the tree at Abbotswood shops ready for their event that's happening this Saturday. Our school choir will be singing at 5.45pm just before the tree lighting. Please go along and support them if you can.

Lost Property

There is a huge amount of lost property in school that isn't named which makes it impossible to return it to it's rightful owner. Please make sure EVERYTHING is named.

Don't forget you can order labels for your children's belongings from Stikins and school earns commission on every sale.
